

LOCAL DOINGS IN TABLOID FORM

Miss Mary Benz, 435 W. 117th st., wants H. R. Morgan of Blue Island arrested. Says he fled with $486 after promise to marry.

Case of John O'Donnell, charged with murder of Philip Sullivan, saloonkeeper, goes to jury today.

John Berg, 1214 Stone st., killed by fall.

Twenty couples driven from Germania Club dance by fire. Police averted panic.

Unconscious woman found at 509 Root st. clad in apron and one shoe, died at Bridewell hospital. Gave name as Anna Loughlin, Battle Creek, Mich.

Dr. Charles Culver, 1057 Grand av., answered hurry call. Entered dark hallway. Robbed $24 and watch.

Mrs. Bridget Joyce, 701 Wells st., arrested. Badly beat up Patrick Flaherty, 678 Wells st.

Mrs. Sophie Meyers, 1404 E. 51st, ordered by Hyde Park court to show husband bank book. Had refused to give William a peep for 3 years.

Felix Richter fined $100 and costs in Judge Fake's court. Annoyed Mrs. Clara O'Malley, 6602 S. May st. Second offense.

Burglars entered Weisenmayer & Sanke's winehouse, 631 North av. $400 in rare coins taken. No liquor missing.

Council committee postponed terminal issue until after holidays. Mayor disappointed.

Nels Elmer Ohaman found slain in Stockholm Hotel, 463 W. Chicago av. Was on way from Duluth to Sweden.

50 girl operators at Harrison telephone exchange stuck to posts, while firemen fought blaze on first floor. Damage $1,000.

Earnest Holsteen grabbed a dozen eggs. Wanted Christmas present for wife. Paroled.

Haircut given to 300 inmates of Crippled Children's Home by Journeyman Barbers' Union.

Boys employed in shoe shining shops of Geo. Michaelopolous testified that they receive $10 a month for 15 hours, were boarded and lodged by bosses and that tips were confiscated.

Michael Flynn, 5324 W. Jackson blvd., killed by hoisting machine at 4553 Lexington av.

Judge Landis' ire aroused when man boasted of ability to "fix" case. George Vilford, Joseph Rubens and Aaron C. Wendell held for grand jury.

Zergeino Lazereskio, 621 Alaska st., arrested. Said to be slayer of Thomas Scheer, assassinated Sunday.

Service on "L's" declared to be worst ever given here. Alderman Block assails new management.

Mrs. Ruby Lane, cashier, Clover Lunch Club, 208 S. Wabash av., robbed by two men. $379.94.

Burglar attempted to break into flat of Mrs. Philip Cohen, 5231 Michigan av. Servant frightened him.

496 passed police exams. Out of 2,175 applicants 1,730 took medical exam.

700 messenger boys entertained by Western Union Company.

Chas. Burt, 30, 2136 N. Racine av., police boat engineer, drowned at foot of N. LaSalle st.

Hugo Roemer, 28, 2250 S. Homan av., found with throat cut. Police suspect attempted suicide. May recover.

Fred von Baudissin arrested at New Orleans. Wanted here for $7,000 forgery.

Samuel Alberts, 2304 Potomac av., member of Sisman & Alberts, cloak manufacturers, 308 W. Van Buren st., arrested. Said to have set fire to firm's shop.

Wm. A. and Allen Pinkerton, National Pinkerton Detective Agency, sued for $150,000 by Pinkerton & Co. Business libel.

Police asked to aid Mrs. Esther Rosen, 1018 Maxwell st., and 3 chil-